

Sacred
Heart
School

8th Grade Science Midterm Project

Description: Students will create a poster of an endangered species from New York with recommendations for how to keep an endangered species from going extinct.

Part 1: Research endangered species that is native to New York and Research and organize information on a species that is native to New York.

Create a minimum of 6 research cards

- 3 with information describing your species
- 3 with information about causes for endangerment

Research card template

Website Title:

Website Address:

Useful information (bullets ok):

How will this help with my conservation plan?

Due date: Monday 1/23

Part 2: Write a draft conservation plan based on research findings and class notes

Due date: Wednesday 1/25

Part 3: Create poster

Poster must include:

- Drawings or images of the endangered species
- Short description of the species
- Recommendations for how to conserve the species

Due date: Friday 1/27